CREATING THE FINEST RESIDENCES IN THE MOST EXCLUSIVE ADDRESSES WORLDWIDE

First principals of architecture with structure and system, integrity, utility and beauty, born from research, development and testing to inform scale, mass, proportion. A holistic approach from initial concept to realisation. Delivery is key to our success and enjoyment along the way is essential, we are a specialist hybrid product team, no longer designers, no longer constructors. The ability to realise a vision with exquisite detail and finish is what we strive for.

Rigby & Rigby consists of a multidisciplinary team of designers and architects specialising in ultra-prime residential design combining state-of-the-art technology with traditional craftsmanship to reach a level that is unsurpassed in the industry.

We are a London based studio offering our clients a complete turnkey solution from conception through to completion. Our expertise extends across development management, architecture (RIBA), interior design (BIID & SBID), construction and private client services to create the most exceptional properties in the world.

Together with Helen Green Design and Lawson Robb, Rigby & Rigby is now part of Allect - London's largest residential design practice. and part of the £2.7 billion Rigby Group Plc – one of the UK's most respected family businesses.
